

Institute for Professional Development

The Rosa J. Kolker Professional Development Series

Boundaries and Supervision: Enhancing Emotional Prosperity and Ethical Decision-Making

Monday, October 3, 2022

9:00 – 11:00 am

via Zoom Video Conferencing

2.0 Category I CEUs

Presented by:

Anthony S. Parente, MA, LCPC, NCC, MAC, ICGC II, BACC, Mental Health Clinician

Claire Fultz, DSW, MSW, MSC, LCSW-C, CCM,
Director of Mental Health, Jewish Community Services

This workshop will discuss boundaries and supervision as essential for emotional prosperity and ethical decision making. Join other participants to consider how being a helping professional impacts emotional and physical well-being and how you can help yourself, your colleagues, and your supervisees remain resilient.

Register by Monday, September 26: HERE

General Public: $50.00

Jewish Day School Educators/JCS Retirees: $40.00

JCS Staff/JCS Board & Council Members/ Staff of Associated Agencies: Free

As a result of this training, participants will:

- Develop ethical decision-making skills related to boundary setting which are necessary for emotional prosperity
- Learn clinical supervision strategies for maximizing emotional prosperity and methods of applying them to both the therapeutic relationship and the organizational context
- Review organizational interventions which can help human service organizations develop cultures optimal for employee well-being

Jewish Community Services is approved by the Maryland Board of Social Work Examiners to sponsor Continuing Education for social workers (psychologists and licensed professional counselors).

Jewish Community Services maintains responsibility for this program and its content.

Funding for this series is made possible by a grant from The Kolker-Saxon-Hallock Family Foundation.

JCS is an agency of The Associated

