Seeds of Hope
A Program of JCS

Navigating Family Building with Donors or Surrogates

Building a family can take many different paths, each with its own practical, legal, and emotional considerations.

Join us for a conversation with trusted experts who will help guide you through the possibilities and challenges of assisted reproductive technologies (ART) using donors or surrogates.

Topics will Include

- Legal considerations in gestational surrogacy and donor conception
- Emotional and psychosocial aspects of working with a donor or gestational carrier
- Considerations for raising a donor-conceived child

Free and open to the public.
